

All the big cities are a good place for live for young people, because in this cities has a lot of diferents works, good places for live, and entreteiniment. But in my city this is more easy because is one of the most importan capitals in South America. Santiago is a good city for live and a great place for make a good life.

Santiago has good works, good places for live and really good places of entreteinement.

Santiago is the most important city of Chile bacause is the capital of the country. For this have more work. This is because in the capital exist the mos importants brand and companies in the country. In the city has a lot of diferent works, this is for the cuantity of people lives in the city. You are need a work, only you needs find, with this you needs find a good place for live.

In this city you have a lot of diferent types of places for live, For example you likes the mountains you need find one house in the Cajon del Maipo this is a beautiful place for live. You likes the big city you need find a appartmen in Santiago Centro or Providencia is posible likes the beautiful see of your appartmen. other option is the country for example Calera de Tango, Buin, Lampa and Batuco in this place is posible live relax. Other places for live in this city is more close of the entreteiniment places.

the city have a lot of diferent place for entreteiniment depend you like. For example you like the life in the night the perfect place is Bellavista. In Bellavista has a lot of diferent restaurants and discoteques, other site is the street Suecia in this place has otre types of pubs and restaurants. And the best place for eat is the street El Bosque because in this place has a lot of diferent and expensive restaurant.

For this Santiago is a great city for live. You haved a lot of diferent work depend in what do you like work.

A lot odiferents place for livein the city because the city is big and have a diferent places for this. And the best places for the entreteiniment, restaurants, discos and pubs. wet
